The election filed September 27, 2004 has been entered and made of record as paper no. 0904.

Applicant's election of Species III, Figures 7-9, and claims 13 and 15-23 in the reply filed on September 27, 2004 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

The specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 13 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Jaso et al (US-5894152, cited by Applicants).

Jaso discloses in figures 5 and 6 a semiconductor device comprising a plurality of first semiconductor layers (16 or 100 or 104) formed in a first region with an insulating film between the semiconductor substrate (12) and the first semiconductor layers (16 or 100 or 104) and a second semiconductor layer formed in a second region (102 or 122) of the substrate.

In re claim 15, the first semiconductor layers (100) in Jaso are surrounded by the second semiconductor layer (102).

In re claim 16, it is well known that the device in Jaso can be used in logic circuits, storage element, analog element, and signal input/output circuit. Mere statement of intended use is of no patentable weight in claims drawn to structure. See Ex parte Minks, 169 USPQ 120.

In re claims 17 and 18, the first semiconductor layers in Jaso are arranged to be symmetrical with respect to a certain point or certain straight line on the semiconductor substrate.

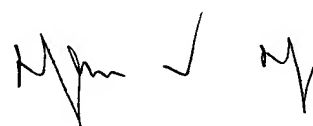

In re claims 19 and 22, the area of second semiconductor layer (102) in Jaso is layer than the first semiconductor layers 100).

In re claims 20 and 23, no patentable weight is given to the process of making in claims drawn to device. Note that a "product by process" claim is directed to the product per se, no matter how actually made, In re Hirao, 190 USPQ 15 at 17(footnote 3). See also In re Brown, 173 USPQ 685; In re Luck, 177 USPQ 523; In re Fessmann, 180 USPQ 324; In re Avery, 186 USPQ 161; In re Wertheim, 191 USPQ 90 (209 USPQ 554 does not deal with this issue); In re Marosi et al, 218 USPQ 289; and particularly In re Thorpe, 227 USPQ 964, all of which make it clear that it is the patentability of the final product per se which must be determined in a "product by process" claim, and not the patentability of the process, and that an old or obvious product produced by a new method is not patentable as a product, whether claimed in "product by process" claims or not. Note that applicant has the burden of proof in such cases, as the above caselaw makes clear.

In re. claim 21, the first semiconductor layer (100) in Jaso is rectangle and the second semiconductor layer (102) surrounds the first semiconductor layer.
